User | Cloud

1	User call application URL from his browser and click his mailbox.
2	Mails and attached files are loaded and display in user browser.
3	User click for analyze.
4	Application send mail subjects to Tone Analyzer.
5	Application send mail contents to Natural Language Understanding and store the result.
7	Application send mail attached pictures to Visual Recognition and store the result.
8	Application ask Discovery to analyze documents stored in its collection and store the result.
9	Application merge all results in one json file and send it back to user browser.

result.